With his Children's Pieces for Adults, the Georgian composer and pianist Nodar Gabunia created an eight-part piano cycle in 1987 in the wake of such pedagogically oriented collections as Peter Tchaikovsky's Children's Album Op.39 or Béla Bartók's For Children Sz 42. In her recording, the Georgian pianist Ketevan Sepashvili complements it with Frédéric Chopin's Préludes Op.28.
